Went West—T. F. Rowlands, division superintendent of the Southern Pacific, went west yesterday on an inspection tour of the Salt Lake division.

Divorce—Julia Joyce has been granted a final decree of divorce from her husband, Wade H. Joyce. The interlocutory decree was granted on May 25, 1910.

Joseph Parry & Sons Co. Monuments Washington avenue.

Full-Fledged Journeyman—Tom Baker has just completed his apprenticeship time at the Southern Pacific shops, and is now a full-fledged journeyman machinist.

Motor Car Repaired—The Southern Pacific motor car, which some time ago was damaged in a collision in the yards, has been repaired and is again ready for service.

Grand Mask Carnival at Auditorium Skating rink Monday, December 19. Grand prize of $500 will be given to the couple having the best sustained character costume; $250 to best dressed lady and $250 to best dressed gentleman.

Will Sing in Salt Lake—Miss Florence Farley, well-known vocalist of this city, who resides on Gramercy avenue, has accepted a position as singer at the Lyric in Salt Lake City.

Will Dance in Pocatello—A number of the machinists of the Southern Pacific shops are expected to attend the fifteenth annual ball of the Pocatello machinists, which will be held in that city December 26. William Gordon will have charge of the Ogden delegation and states that more than a dozen local machinists have signified their intention of making the trip.

Struck by a Chain—H. Y. McLaughlin, an employee of the Southern Pacific shops, has returned to work after a two-day layoff, made necessary by an injury caused by a flying chain. The chain struck Mr. McLaughlin on the head and inflicted a painful, but not serious, injury.

Resumes Work—Leo Kennedy has resumed work at the Southern Pacific shops, after an enforced vacation of four weeks, due to injuries sustained in an explosion of gasoline. Mr. Kennedy was cleaning a pair of trousers with the inflammable liquid, which took fire, badly burning the man about the hands and face.

New Machine—A new planer is being installed in the coach department of the Southern Pacific shops. The tool will be operated by a fifty-horse-power motor, which will be the largest motor in the shops. The planer is one of a score of new machines which have been delivered at the shops during the past few months.

Granted Alimony—Hilfred Stone has been granted an interlocutory decree of divorce from his husband, Le Roy Stone. The decree provides that Mr. Stone shall pay the plaintiff's attorneys $40, defray the court expenses and pay Mrs. Stone $2.50 a week permanent alimony.

SOCIETY

CHINA WEDDING.

Among the pleasant events of the month was the china wedding of Mr. and Mrs. David Taylor, when relatives and friends gathered to commemorate the occasion in pleasant social diversion and to offer congratulations, together with appropriate remembrances.

Musical selections and popular games were followed by the serving of refreshments.

Those to wish Mr. and Mrs. Taylor many happy returns of their wedding day were: Mr. and Mrs. Chester Dean, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Crowther, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Iverson, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Farr, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McElroy, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Snyder and Mr. and Mrs. George Edwards.

OGDEN CALEDONIANS.

The Ogden Caledonians are already preparing to celebrate the anniversary of Robert Burns' birthday, January 25.

On that day loyal Scots the world over, are accustomed to meet and enjoy a program of Scottish songs, Highland dances and other diversions that renew the memory of the heather-clad hills so far away. "Hoot, mon! Dinna ye hear the bagpipes?" The several committees appointed at the last meeting are working like Scots to make the celebration the best ever held in this city. Announcement of the program will be made later.

LADIES AUXILIARY, U. S. W. V.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Spanish War Veterans held their annual election of officers and the following were elected to serve for the ensuing year:

President, Mrs. Lena Walters; Sr. vice president, Mrs. Isella Tyree; Jr. vice president, Mrs. Carrie E. Dodge; chaplain, Mrs. Matilda Lyman; treasurer, Mrs. Anna Batchelor; assistant conductor, Mrs. Tryphenia Stewart; guard, Mrs. Belva Chester; assistant guard, Mrs. Lottie Marshall; patriotic instructor, Mrs. Edith Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Ringdahl, of 123 Twenty-fifth street, have just returned from Urie, Wyoming, where they attended the marriage of their son, John Ringdahl, to Miss Lucille Field, of the same place. Mr. Ringdahl is an employee of the B. & Q. company.

Judge Morris of Colorado Springs passed through Ogden last week and spent a day with his sister, Miss Martha E. May.

Sister Superior of the Sacred Heart academy has just returned from a trip to San Francisco, much improved in health.

SALE OF THE CONTOS ESTATE

In the matter of the estate of John Contos, deceased, the hearing of the petition of James Allison, asking that the court order the administrator to render an account of the administration and provide for the sale of the property of the estate, that a final distribution might be made, was had in the district court yesterday. The petition was granted and the following persons were appointed to act as commissioners in the sale of the estate:

J. C. Nye, Charles Humphries and Harold Peery.

The attorney for Allison represented that he had purchased a three-fifths interest in the estate of three out of five of the heirs, residents of Greece, and that it was much desired that the estate be turned into cash and the amount due the assignee paid over to him.

POOR PEOPLE IN NEED OF AID

That Poverty is not altogether a stranger in Ogden homes is evidenced by some recent investigations conducted by Capt. Chesham of the local Salvation Army corps. While these investigations, by no means include a canvass of the city the result shows some deplorable instances of how the "other half" lives.

In nearly all of the cases of destitution enumerated by the Army officer, the cause of the poverty is illness. Some are large families in which the health of the father is such that he cannot earn sufficient money to keep the wolf from the door. In other instances there is no father in the home and the wife lone-handed is making the fight against the gloom. Efforts are to be made by the Salvation Army to relieve the misery of these families on Christmas day with baskets of food.

Following is a list of the families, with names omitted, which the Army will endeavor to supply with a Christmas dinner:

1. Stewart's lane. Eight children. Father been sick and still unable to work. Mother industrious, tries hard to keep things going by taking in washing. Very destitute.

2. Stewart's lane. Five children. Father an actor, away from home, owing to poor health working only part time. The remittances are small and few. Rather destitute.

3. Twenty-third street. Father has been and is still sick. Mother working where she can. Five children. Very destitute.

4. Twenty-third street. Father not very strong, working part time. Baby sick. Would appreciate what we could do for them. Three children.

5. Twenty-third street. Very old lady living alone. The county and the Mormon Relief society have given aid. A basket would cheer her.

6. Washington avenue. Six in the family. Father working, but heavily in debt. Cannot afford anything for the children.

7. Washington avenue. Husband a cripple. Six children. Right at this time they seem to be feeling poverty's squeezing hand. Very destitute.

8. Pacific avenue. Very large family. Father out of work. Mother been sick. Seemingly very needy. Ten children.

9. Pacific avenue. Father working occasionally. Baby sick. Six children. Very destitute.

10. Over the tracks. Widow. Two children sick. Rather destitute.

11. Wall avenue. Father sickly. Mother with large family handicapped. Six in family. Rather destitute.

12. Wall avenue. Husband left her with three children. Rather destitute.

13. Pingree avenue. Father been sick for three months. Just able to get around. Large family. Seemingly very destitute.

14. Euclid avenue. Husband been sick, working part time. Neighbors give some help. Three children. Rather destitute.

15. Thirty-fourth street. Widow. Three children. Has rather hard time.

16. Jefferson avenue. Widow, rather old and all alone. Rather destitute.

17. Ogden avenue. Husband been sick for some time, still unable to do much. Apparently very destitute.

18. Ogden avenue. Widow alone. Rather destitute.

19. Ogden avenue. Widow alone.

A basket would cheer her.

20. Thirty-fourth street. Widow with three children. Takes in washing for a livelihood. Rather destitute.

21. Twenty-third street. Four in family. Father working occasionally, very sickly. Fairly destitute.

22. Lincoln avenue. Widow, one boy with her. Two in family. Rather destitute.

23. Twenty-second street. Widow, washes for a living. Would appreciate a basket. Rather destitute.

24. Wall avenue. Husband away out of town. Remits sometimes a little, and sometimes none. Mother is working hard for a living. Three children. Rather destitute.

25. Sherman avenue. The father works sometimes, makes good money when he does. Mother takes in washing to make ends meet, and is almost barefooted. Seven children at home. Mother needs shoes and would appreciate what we can do. Very destitute.

26. Twenty-first street. Widow, one boy at home, works occasionally. Would appreciate a basket very much. Rather destitute.

27. Twenty-third street and O. S. L. tracks. Mother is paralyzed on one side. Father not strong; works occasionally. Six children need clothing, shoes and stockings badly; have been going barefooted until two weeks ago; kind neighbors came to aid. Children are sleeping on a bundle of rags in a corner. No bedding. Very, very destitute.

28. Twenty-third street. Father not very strong, working part time. Baby sick. Would appreciate what we could do for them. Three children.

29. Twenty-third street. Very old lady living alone. The county and the Mormon Relief society have given aid. A basket would cheer her.

30. Washington avenue. Six in the family. Father working, but heavily in debt. Cannot afford anything for the children.
